The Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his/her occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his/her personal, business and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Membership in Rotary

Each active member shall be an adult person of good character and good business or professional reputation meeting the qualifications of Article IV, Section 3, of the “Constitution of Rotary International”.
